Good morning!

When was the last time you felt worn out?
Who did you look up to when you were a kid?
Do you have a family member that you don't get along with?
What are you looking forward to?
When was the last time you ran out of something?
Where did you hang out a lot when you were a teenager and who did you hang out with?

Write 6 mistakes you made recently. Leave one space.

I drank too much coffee yesterday.
I shouldn't have drunk too much …
-Why did you drink…

I didn't take out the trash this morning.
I should have taken out the trash this morning.
- Why didn't you…

What would you do if you had $1 million
If I had $1 million, I would throw a party.
If I threw a party, I wouldn't invite Eldana.
If I didn't invite Eldana, she would get mad at me.
If she got mad at me, she would fight me.
If she fought me, I would go to the hospital.
If I went to the hospital, I wouldn't talk to her anymore.

If I didn’t talk to her anymore, life would be good.

If you could change anything about your neighborhood/kids school/Chicago, what would you change and why?
